Superstar SPOTLIGHT

Rachel Johnston

Meet Rachel, a seasoned credit union professional with 14 years of experience. As an Operations Specialist at HFCU, she takes pride in providing exceptional service and helping her coworkers assist members.

When she's not busy at work, Rachel indulges in her love for cooking, reading, and crocheting. She loves a tall glass of Dunkin'-Iced Coffee™, and she's currently reading The Bridgerton Collection by Julia Quinn while eagerly awaiting the next season on Netflix®. But she isn't all work and no play. In the spring, you'll find her outside planting flowers with her kids and admiring her blooming roses. Rachel is a credit union superstar!

Financial Tips for a BUDGET-FRIENDLY DATE NIGHT

Spring is in the air, and so is romance! Let your local credit union recommend some budget-friendly dates for you and your partner to enjoy this season:

- 1 Local Museums
 In many local museums, admission is either free or very inexpensive. You and your significant other can hold hands and stroll around observing art or learning historical facts.
- 2 Local Parks
 The weather is often a factor when it comes to dates, but this option can be fun in almost any season. You can take lovely summer walks, pick flowers in the spring, watch the leaves change in autumn, and some parks have great sledding hills in the winter. The fresh air and exercise will benefit everyone. Some parks have nature centers where you can observe animals and fish, and is much cheaper than a zoo.
- 3 Restaurant Crawl
 This date requires more work than the others, but it's also quite a fun time. You choose four of your favorite restaurants, ordering an appetizer at the first, a light meal at the second, dessert at the third, and drinks at the fourth. This allows creativity from both of you while you try to decide what food combos work best together. Even though you're only purchasing one full meal, it will feel like an adventure!

- 4 Local Library
 Many local libraries offer fun classes to the public that are free or low-cost. Recent types we've seen in Henrico include wreath making, kombucha brewing, and even mortgage seminars hosted by your credit union. If you don't want to attend a class, simply browsing the library can be refreshing. You and your date can agree on a book to check out and read together. It is always more fun to have someone you can rave about the plot of your latest novel with.
- 5 Picnic
 Pack those sandwiches you were going to eat on the couch and take them out to the backyard to enjoy the fresh air! Add a fun twist and create a dessert-only picnic in the evening so you can watch the sunset or gaze at the stars. You may find yourselves talking, laughing, and enjoying each other's company so much that you don't want to go back inside.

Remember, spending quality time with your companion is what matters most. It makes no difference how much money is spent!
